

The Thirty-Second Gospel: Outline for the Speed Sermon

Speaker Profile

The speaker, Ben Meredith, is known for his unique blend of rapid-fire oratory and a strikingly smooth, reflective dome. He embraces his lack of hair, often reminding the congregation that he is simply following in the footsteps of great, bald Biblical figures such as Elisha (who once summoned bears to deal with hecklers) and Samson (after a regrettable haircut incident).

Sermon Details

Element	Detail	Time Allotted
Theme	The necessity of brevity in the modern attention economy	0:03

Element	Detail	Time Allotted
Passage	Romans 12:2 (The abridged version)	0:02
Date	Mar 11, 2026	---
Location	Siloam Baptist Church 📍 Ninety Six	---
Related Event	Express Worship Service	---

The 30-Second Outline

I. Introduction (0:05)

- Greeting: "Hallelujah. Sit down. I see you." (0:02)
- The Problem: Life is short. But my sermon is shorter. We move! (0:03)

II. Point 1: Get to the Point (0:10)

- The text: "Do not conform... to this world." (Romans 12:2, micro-version). (0:03)
- Application: Stop scrolling. Start living. You have approximately 22 seconds left of your sermon-time, use them wisely. (0:07)

III. The Conclusion (0:10)

- The Key takeaway: Be transformed. (That's all you need to know.) (0:05)
- Final Exhortation: Go forth, and sin no more slowly. (0:05)

IV. Amen, Literally (0:05)

- The End: "Amen. You're dismissed." (0:05)